2. APPLICATION. This regulation governs official Agency travel and related shipment and storage. The provisions apply to all Agency personnel and their dependents unless otherwise specified.

a. TRAVEL AND RELATED SHIPMENT AND STORAGE. Travel at Government expense and related shipment and storage of effects may be authorized or approved as follows:

- 25X1A
- (1) [Change in process as Job 5353, attached to Job 5856 on [redacted] Tours of Duty Abroad]
- (2) [No change]
- (3) Upon separation abroad for reasons other than retirement, travel and transportation expenses from the last post of assignment to the employee's Permanent Place of Residence as defined in [redacted] including removal of effects from storage and delivery to authorized destination provided the Service Abroad Agreement is not breached. An employee who elects to reside elsewhere will be allowed expenses incurred not to exceed the constructive cost of direct travel and transportation from the last post of assignment to his Permanent Place of Residence.
- 25X1A
- (4) Upon retirement:
- (a) Abroad, travel and transportation expenses from the last post of assignment to the place where the employee will reside in the United States, its possessions, or the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico including removal of effects from storage and delivery to the authorized destination. An employee who elects to reside elsewhere will be allowed expenses incurred not to exceed the constructive cost of direct travel and transportation from the last post of assignment to his Permanent Place of Residence as defined in [redacted]
- 25X1A
- (b) Within the continental United States by a participant in the CIA Retirement and Disability System, travel and transportation expenses from the last post of assignment to the place where the employee will reside in the United States, its possessions, or the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico. If the employee elects to reside elsewhere, the constructive cost provisions of subparagraph (4)(a) above will apply.
- (5) [No change]

a. through g. [No change]

h. Reserved. [To be used for cross-references to definition of Creditable Service Abroad when [ ] is coordinated and published.]

i. through o. [Formerly h through n. Definition of home leave point to be modified with revision of home leave regulation.]

p. Reserved. [To be used eventually for needed definition of indirect travel.]

q. and r. [Formerly o and p. No change in text.]

s. Permanent Place of Residence normally means the place where an employee physically dwells in the United States, its possessions, or the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico prior to a PCS transfer to a post abroad. The Director of Personnel, with the concurrence of the Deputy Director concerned, may approve another place as the employee's Permanent Place of Residence if the employee can establish, at the time of his request, that his physical dwelling place is transitory and temporary and such other place that he has requested is a place where he is domiciled or has previously physically dwelt. Information that can be presented in writing as evidence includes, but is not limited to, state voting registration, property ownership, and place where income or personal property taxes have been paid. Each employee who is departing on a PCS tour of duty outside CONUS or, if a participant in the CIA Retirement and Disability System, is being transferred [ ] will submit information to the Office of Personnel so that the Director of Personnel in coordination with the Deputy Director concerned may designate or validate his Permanent Place of Residence before his departure.
